3 David Seymour , mandataire for MVH Ltd addressed the assembly to advise that Greenhills Country House Hotel would like to apply for a Sixth category (off licence) to enable them to continue their business . This application was proposed by Ian Gray and seconded by Helder Pereira.

The Constable asked the assembly if there were any objections to this application, of which there were none with no abstentions so a unanimous approval was given.

The Constable asked the Chef de Police for his comments who confirmed that he has never had any issues with the establishment which is always well run and very respectable so he has no objections to this application.
